Field Trips

Date and Time: Friday, June 13 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Cost: $2 / participant

Transform your next class or group outing into an unforgettable artistic adventure. In just two hours, we'll take you on a curated journey through exhibitions and hands on art-making activity.

These field trips are perfect for:

- Educators seeking to enrich classroom learning with Ontario Art Curriculum connections in design principles, color theory, creative expression, and artistic reflection.
- Community groups looking for accessible art experiences that spark discussion, encourage hands-on creativity, and build team connections through shared artistic discovery.

Current Activity: Imagining Futuristic Fashion

Explore futuristic fashion by designing a character that reflects an imaginative future inspired by our Futures exhibition. Participants will envision what life might be like, create a character with a unique style, and incorporate magical or protective items using a variety of art materials.
