

Tuesday, December 2, 2025

Field Trips

Date and Time: Tuesday, December 2 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Cost: $2 / participant

Transform your next class or group outing into an unforgettable artistic adventure. In just two hours, we'll take you on a curated journey through exhibitions and hands on art-making activity.

These field trips are perfect for:

- Educators seeking to enrich classroom learning with Ontario Art Curriculum connections in design principles, color theory, creative expression, and artistic reflection.
- Community groups looking for accessible art experiences that spark discussion, encourage hands-on creativity, and build team connections through shared artistic discovery.

Current Activity: Fragments of a Story

Capture a moment with instant photography and pair it with your own six-word story. Learn essential photography techniques—including leading lines and the rule of thirds—while creating compelling visual stories that combine image and text.

Tuesday, December 9, 2025

Field Trips

Date and Time: Tuesday, December 9 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Cost: $2 / participant

Transform your next class or group outing into an unforgettable artistic adventure. In just two hours, we'll take you on a curated journey through exhibitions and hands on art-making activity.

These field trips are perfect for:

- Educators seeking to enrich classroom learning with Ontario Art Curriculum connections in design principles, color theory, creative expression, and artistic reflection.
- Community groups looking for accessible art experiences that spark discussion, encourage hands-on creativity, and build team connections through shared artistic discovery.

Current Activity: Fragments of a Story

Capture a moment with instant photography and pair it with your own six-word story. Learn essential photography techniques—including leading lines and the rule of thirds—while creating compelling visual stories that combine image and text.

mbine image and text.

Tuesday, December 16, 2025

Field Trips

Date and Time: Tuesday, December 16 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Cost: $2 / participant

Transform your next class or group outing into an unforgettable artistic adventure. In just two hours, we'll take you on a curated journey through exhibitions and hands on art-making activity.

These field trips are perfect for:

- Educators seeking to enrich classroom learning with Ontario Art Curriculum connections in design principles, color theory, creative expression, and artistic reflection.
- Community groups looking for accessible art experiences that spark discussion, encourage hands-on creativity, and build team connections through shared artistic discovery.

Current Activity: Fragments of a Story

Capture a moment with instant photography and pair it with your own six-word story. Learn essential photography techniques—including leading lines and the rule of thirds—while creating compelling visual stories that combine image and text.

<https://Calendar.jnaag.ca>