TNT: Designing the Future with Sarah Whalls

Date and Time: Thursday, May 1 4:00 pm - 6:00 pm

Address: 147 Lochiel St, Sarnia, ON N7T 0B4

Register here.

Let's imagine the future together. Taking inspiration from Rajni Perera's exhibition "Future", participants in this session will consider what their own ideas for the future may be. How might people dress in the future? What will inspire fashion and design? We'll use questions like these and more to create mixed media artworks depicting figures in the future.

High Arctic Relocations and the Commercialization of Inuit Art with Professor Pauline Wakeham

Date and Time: Thursday, May 22 7:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Register here.

Join us for an insightful lecture with Professor Pauline Wakeham from Western University, an expert in Indigenous reparations movements, as she delves into the complex history of mid-century colonialism in the Arctic. Drawing connections to the Sculpting Life exhibition, Professor Wakeham will explore the High Arctic relocations and their lasting impacts on Inuit communities. She will discuss the entanglement of these relocations with the commercialization of Inuit art and the ways Inuit communities have responded to these ongoing challenges in recent decades. This talk promises to offer a nuanced perspective on the intersections of art, history, and resilience in the Arctic.
